

AI BREAKFAST SESSION

21 March 2024

Join EMW for our second AI breakfast seminar – back by popular demand!

In this predominantly group-led session, we'll delve deeper into some of the legal considerations when using AI in your business.

There will be plenty of opportunity for discussion and debate, and you will leave with plenty of useful takeaways that you can put into practice right away from the topics we will be covering:

- Roundup of recent AI updates
- Using AI in business projects and issues to consider
- The different approaches taken by the UK and EU
