LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMMES

Demands on leaders and managers are changing faster than ever – from supporting hybrid, multi-generational workforces, to navigating human resources challenges, to developing a more connected leadership style, the 21st Century workplace is a dynamic space that demands equally dynamic executives.

Our four free leadership and management programmes, How to Lead & Manage Teams, How to Lead More Effectively, Key HR Practices Every Business Should Have and Strategic Human Resources Management are delivered by the University of Chichester Business School and are aimed at anyone who wants to develop the knowledge, techniques, and strategies to lead and manage in modern organisations.
