YOUR OFFICIAL INVITATION

We're pleased to invite you to celebrate the official launch of the new Lexus Gatwick centre.

The brave design of our new showroom combines imaginative technology with the specialist Takumi Craftmanship seen throughout the Lexus range. The evening will feature a unique opportunity to learn the Japanese tradition of origami modelling, a guest appearance from renowned Michelin chef and Lexus ambassador, Michel Roux Jr. and an exclusive preview of the All New Lexus UX before its UK release in March 2019.

This event is by invitation only, so we kindly ask you to R.S.V.P.
by emailing lexus-gatwick@lexus.co.uk by 5 September.

We look forward to celebrating with you.

Yours sincerely,

Julian Murphy
