Networking Events—

Our gdb Events Programme offers a wide selection of venues and times to suit you. All events can be booked via the gdb website.

You will be provided with a delegate list for each networking event you book on to.

You will receive a delegate for your inclusive event bookings, 1 week prior to the event.

As a member, you receive a discounted rate for our chargeable events, and a delegate list will be available upon arrival. For our Inclusive Events we do permit 2 attendees, space permitting for Band B members and above and 1 attendee for our Band A members.

The Source Magazine -

You are entitled to free entry of articles into our Source Magazine.

We request the articles to be 200-300 words, editorial (not advertorial), with an image and contact details.

The magazine is mailed to over 500 of our member contacts and distributed at business exhibitions, to potential members, and in business meeting areas throughout the Gatwick Diamond.

The gdb Website -

You are welcome to submit news items which we can add to our gdb newsfeed. These can be shared across our social media platforms.

Additionally you will have access to our LinkedIn Group where you can connect and engage with other gdb members.

You will also receive a listing on our membership directory that will have your website link and contact details available.

Lobbying and Influencing -

As a gdb member your voice will contribute to issues of economic importance.

We can offer assistance with planning applications as well as support to act as a united voice to represent your interests on local and national issues.
